- Mat to sit on
- Map of the area
- A small backpack with food and drinks
- Good mood ☺

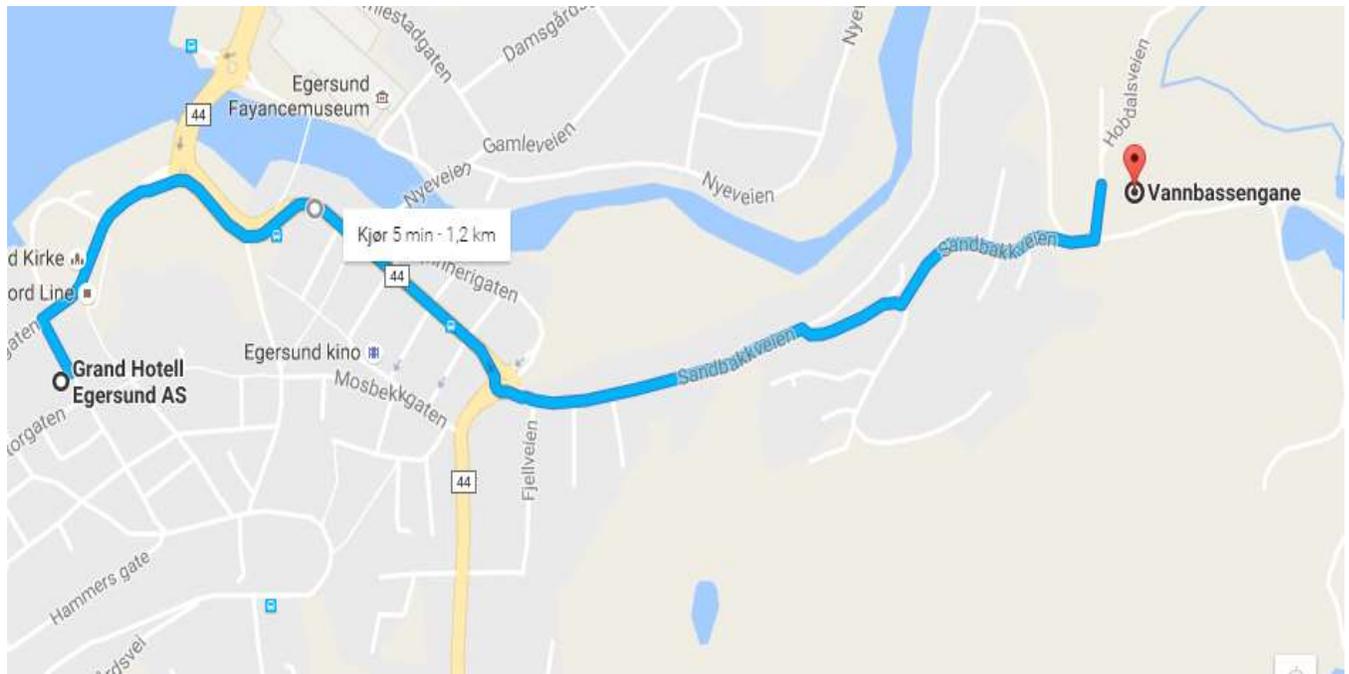

In Vannbassengane you will find a hilly landscape covered with coniferous forests, lying just north-east of Egersund city centre. It is a marvellous hiking area! You will find rich vegetation and several kilometres of nature- and culture trails. There are picnic areas, floodlit tracks, and observation points - all in an area well suited for activities such as jogging, ball games and swimming. You will find toilet facilities by the bathing spot. Big parking lot. Due to its location, natural beauty and easily accessible facilities, Vannbassengane is among the most popular outdoor recreation areas in Dalane.

There are four marked paths starting from the parking lot in Vannbassengane. These are all hikes in slightly hilly terrain with varied coniferous forests. Dalane Friluftsråd has made a selection among all the hiking trails in the area, and established four paths with varied difficulty and length. None are harder or longer than most of us can manage. Regarding time, you can choose freely whether to spend from 20 minutes to the entire day. Floodlit paths and hiking trails are at your disposal. There is good signage, so that you can safely find your way.

Access:

From Egersund city centre, drive towards Sokndal (Hauge i Dalane). Signs will show you where to exit the main road. Follow the narrow, well-marked road up to the parking lot, where the Egersund orienteering club has its clubhouse. This is a good place to start your hike. You can also choose to walk from the hotel up to Vannbassengane, instead of driving. This is a short walk and will take you approximately 20 minutes.
